

Who is Friends in Action?

OUR MISSION:

The Friends in Action Mission is to motivate and mobilize young leaders to action by providing resources and meaningful opportunities for youth to develop their unique leadership style.

OUR MOTTO:

Light the Spark. Take the Lead.

At Friends in Action we believe that leaders are made. Our goal is to help young people discover their unique leadership style and help them find ways to reach their full potential.

OUR FOCUS:

Our middle school focus areas include:

Summer Leadership Camps

as a means to leadership discovery with the fun and energy of camp life!

Community Impact Projects

for camp alumni and coordinated by youth twice a year following their summer at camp.

SPARK Clubs as a youth-initiated school club that keeps alumni and classmates involved in meaningful leadership experiences.

What is Leadership Camp?

leadership [lead*r*ship]
 (noun) the ability to guide, direct or influence people.

camp [kamp]
 (noun) a place offering recreational activities and skill development for youth during the summer.

LCamp vs. LCamp2

Our leadership camps are designed as a progressive learning experience; one level builds on to the next.

If your youth has not attended one of our camps, they should start with LCamp: "Finding your leadership app". If you have a returning camper, please register for LCamp2: iQUEST

You CAN attend both LCamp and LCamp2 in the same summer.
